JULY 24 SESSION DETAILS

WHAT EVERY SCHOOL LEADER NEEDS TO KNOW ABOUT NEURODIVERSE LEARNERS

Dr. Rebecca Eliason | Dr. Sara Seplowitz

Wish you understood all of the Special Ed jargon? Want to learn how to use neuropsych data to maximize student growth and learn how to understand your neediest students, their diagnoses and how to maximize your school's resources to support them? In this interactive workshop, Dr. Seplowitz and Dr. Eliason will discuss how to create an admissions screening process that ensures students are set up for success. The discussion will include the key differences between an IEP and a 504 plan, focus on how to build a strong special education team within your school, as well as how to best harness district services.

BUILDING LEVEL SUPPORTS: PROVIDING RESOURCES ON A BUDGET

Josh Gold | Temima Feldman

Learn how to provide support and resources for varied learning needs that are both effective and fiscally responsible.

WHERE THE SIDEWALK ENDS:

ADDRESSING STUDENTS THAT AREN'T SUCCEEDING IN A MAINSTREAM CLASSROOM

Rabbi Daniel Alter | Rabbi Dr. Yisrael Rothwachs

Join a conversation on how to identify and address when a student needs accommodations that can only be provided in a more specialized and controlled environment.

NAVIGATING DIFFICULT CONVERSATIONS WITH PARENTS

Rabbi Reuven Kamin | Dr. Yitzchak Goldberg

In this session, we will explore the tools and strategies that educators can use to navigate difficult conversations, while also considering the emotional and ethical implications of such discussions. Participants will be encouraged to share their experiences and engage in group discussions to enhance their learning experience.

THE INTERPLAY BETWEEN LANGUAGE PROCESSING, ATTENTION DEFICITS, AND SOCIAL COGNITION

Rabbi Reuven Kamin

In this workshop we will take a deep dive into the neurodevelopmental constructs of language, attention and social cognition. We will explore the overlap between language processing and attention deficits, and its significant impacts on social cognition. Attendees will gain a greater understanding of students' potentially maladaptive behavior and its underlying causes and solutions. We will discuss relatable case studies, examples, interventions and practical takeaways with a holistic approach to create durable solutions for our students.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT: TO WHAT END?

Rabbi Shlomie Denburg | Rivkah Denburg

Discover what one school is doing with their professional development funds and how it is making real change to bottom-line student success for all types of learners.

BUILDING YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH YOUR PARENTS AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Jonathan Schick: Rabbi Isaac Entin | Rabbi Yaakov Sadigh

A collaborative relationship between professionals and lay leaders is a key component of any organization's success. In this session, learn the importance of:

- Regular communication
- Clear goals and expectations
- Objective performance evaluation standards
